Welcome to Lund University and its fantastic student life! Lund offers students countless opportunities to learn new things and gain new experiences. Below are a few things that are good to know for newly admitted students at Lund University.

HOUSING
Sometimes finding accommodation can prove to be a bit tricky, but there are a few tips to help find your way to a place to stay.

1. Become a member of Studentlund and gain access to AF Bostäder’s housing queue.
2. Post an ad on BoPoolen.nu, a site dedicated to facilitate the connection between students and those interested in subletting.
3. Contact the various student nations through their respective websites. They all have their own housing queues.
4. If things don’t go your way at first, don’t forget to look for accommodation in the areas surrounding Lund. Try to find a temporary place to stay and pick up the search again once you get settled in.

SUPPORT
There are several student services available for students at Lund University. These are tailored to help you with a variety of different needs

- General Student Guidance, here you can ask general questions about your studies, such as your choice of studies, questions about admission or if you have labour market related questions with regards to your field of study.
- Academic Support Centre, here you can find consultation and seminars oriented towards improving your academic skills, such as academic writing and effective studying.
- Disability Support Services, a support service for students with disabilities such as dyslexia, a visual impairment or ADHD. They can provide support and help during your studies.
- Student Health Centre, oriented towards psychological issues that might arise in connection to your studies, such as stress or anxiety. The Student Health Centre has counsellors, nurses, psychologists, psychiatrists and physiotherapists available to support you.

There's also a student ombudsman and a doctoral student ombudsman employed by Lund University Student Unions and the Lund Doctoral Student Unions. You can turn to them if you have been mistreated somewhere at the university, or would need consulting in questions about your rights as a student or doctoral student.

RIGHTS
At Lund University there is a list of rights that describes which rights you have as a student when studying by Lund University. In it, regulations are listed, such as how long an examinator have until an examination must be completed and reported.
STUDENT UNION
A student union is an organization run by students, which purpose is to monitor education. In Lund there’s a student union at every faculty. If you study at the Faculty of Science you can turn to the Science Student Union with questions about your education. Through your student union, you can get involved with many different types of activities, and become a student representative to help improving the study situation for students at your faculty. Contact your student union via www.lundsnaturvetarkar.se. The student unions gather in Lund University Student Unions Association which appoints representatives at university level.

STUDENTLUND
Studentlund is a membership consisting of the so-called “three pillars” which are the nations, the Academic Society and the student unions by Lund university, except for The Student Union at the Faculty of Engineering and the Doctoral Student Union. This membership is not just one of its kind but one of the strongest contributing factors as to why new students continue to choose to study in Lund each semester. Studentlund gives you many opportunities to gain valuable skills and experiences even outside the lecture halls. The membership gives you access to all the things that make Lund a great city to study in: social activities, cultural events and the opportunity to access student housing queues through AF Bostäder and establish contacts with the labor market. The Studentlund membership makes you a member of a nation, the Academic Society as well as your student union. One membership - the entire student life.

Follow Studentlund on Facebook and Instagram or read more about the membership on the website.

MEMBERSHIP IN STUDENTLUND
To become a member of Studentlund you need to register with your application code at studentlund.se. For questions regarding the membership please contact your student union or a nation. If you already are a member but need to switch to a different student union or nation, please do so before paying the membership fee. Contact the student union or nation you would like to switch to for more information.

The Student Union at the Faculty of Engineering, the Doctoral Student Union and Smålands nation are not a part of the Studentlund membership. To become a member in one of these organisations, please contact them through their respective websites. You can also choose to have a double membership and be a member in both Studentlund and, for example, the Student Union at the Faculty of Engineering. Also as a student by an education given at Campus Helsingborg, The Faculty of Fine and Performing arts or read a distance education, you can sign a membership at Studentlund.
